REFUND OF PAYMENT

As a general rule, payments are not refundable. However, in the following cases, the students payment excluding the selection fee and admission fee will be refunded.（The applicant must pay the remittance fee for the refund.)

① If the student decides not to apply for admission before arriving in Japan and before the date of admission.
② If you are unable to come to Japan because you did not receive a visa at your home country's embassy.
③If a student withdraws from the program due to unavoidable circumstances and submits a withdrawal notice by the end of the current semester, the remaining tuition and fees for the following semester(s) will be refunded after confirmation of their departure from Japan or change of residence status.

STUDENT DORMITORY

Himawari Osaka Japanese Language School offers student dormitories to help students who are coming to Japan for the first time to live in Japan with no worries. Students are required to move into a dormitory near the school from where they can attend school.

MOVE IN AND FACILITIES

① For the first six months after enrollment, students must live in the school's designated dormitories (Afterwards, they can move out).
② Furniture and house appliances (fridge, washing machine, air-conditioner, rice cooker, gas, desk and chair) can berented from the school free of charge.
③ Internet is also free.

REGARDING DORMITORY RENT

① Monthly expenses are: rent 28,000 yen for rent and utilities. There is a Moving-in fee of 30,000 yen for the first time only, and an annual home insurance of 5,000 yen.
② Utility expenses (gas, electricity, water) are to be paid by the student. Students who live in a dormitory for 6 months before enrollment, the rent is to be paid in advance. If you continue to live in the dormitories, you must pay in advance for per month.
