SCHOOL OVERVIEW

At a Glance

Osaka Naniwa Japanese Language School opened in October 2025. It provides Japanese-language education for international students and supports progression to vocational schools. The school describes its philosophy as a learning environment with no barrier between society and the classroom.

Your current position

You have passed the school interview. The next stage is document preparation and school review for the Certificate of Eligibility process. Interview success does not by itself guarantee a COE or visa.

Item	Key information
Location	Naniwa Ward, central Osaka, approximately 3 minutes on foot from the East Exit of JR Imamiya Station
Main progression goal	Preparation for vocational school and further education
April intake	2-Year Preparatory Course
October intake	1-Year 6-Month Preparatory Course
Contact	TEL 06-6567-9838 info@onjls.com https://www.onjls.com/

What the school expects from students

- Use Japanese to express who you are and communicate your thoughts clearly.
- Build good relationships with classmates, teachers and people in the community.
- Learn collaboratively through interaction and experience.
- Develop the ability to continue learning independently after graduation.

STUDY OPTIONS

Courses and Learning Path

Course	Start and graduation	Entry profile	Learning path
2-Year Preparatory Course	Enter in April and graduate in March two years later	Begins with basic Japanese. The school guide asks for 150+ hours of study or JLPT N5 equivalent or higher.	Beginner to pre-intermediate to intermediate to advanced
1-Year 6-Month Preparatory Course	Enter in October and graduate in March of the following year after next	For students who already completed beginner to intermediate study. The school guide asks for 300+ hours or JLPT N4 equivalent or higher.	Pre-intermediate to intermediate to advanced

Important for October 2026 and later entry

Current Immigration Services Agency policy requires Japanese ability to be confirmed through an accepted examination or an objectively documented school interview. A 150-hour study certificate alone is no longer sufficient for the affected applications. Follow the school's instructions on the evidence it will submit.

These figures reproduce the supplied school guide. Fees, deadlines, bank details and refund conditions may change. Pay only after receiving the school's current invoice and written instructions, and keep every payment receipt.

PRACTICAL EXPECTATIONS

Living in Osaka

Example monthly living budget from the school guide

Item	Example amount
Shared-house rent	JPY 35,000
Food	JPY 30,000
Mobile phone	JPY 5,000
Utilities	JPY 8,000
Other expenses	JPY 10,000
TOTAL	JPY 88,000 per month

Additional initial expenses shown in the guide include an inkan (about JPY 1,000), JLPT fee (JPY 7,500 per attempt), an optional bicycle (about JPY 15,000) and mobile-phone setup. Actual costs vary by lifestyle and contract.

Part-time work

- You must receive permission for activity outside your Student status before working.
- The general limit is 28 hours per week in total across all jobs.
- During long vacations designated by the school, the limit is 8 hours per day.
- Work connected with adult-entertainment businesses or premises is prohibited.
- Part-time earnings must not be the foundation of your tuition and living-cost plan.

Study comes first

The school guide estimates pre-tax part-time income at roughly JPY 80,000 to JPY 110,000 per month, but work and income are never guaranteed. Attendance and academic progress directly affect your ability to continue studying in Japan.

Health insurance

Eligible mid- to long-term residents in Osaka generally enroll in National Health Insurance. The insured person normally pays 30% of covered medical costs. The school guide's first-year premium estimate of about JPY 2,000 per month is only an estimate; the ward office determines the actual premium.

Refund policy stated in the supplied guide

Before enrollment, the guide states that the remaining amount is refunded after a JPY 15,000 deduction. After enrollment, tuition, facility and equipment fees are refunded on a prorated basis; other fees are reduced by actual expenses already incurred, and the lower of JPY 50,000 or 20% of remaining tuition is also deducted. Confirm the current enrollment agreement and calculation with the school before relying on a refund.

AFTER INTERVIEW ACCEPTANCE

Your Next Actions

1Confirm your intake and deadline

Ask the agency or school to confirm April or October entry, the submission deadline, required Japanese evidence and whether originals are needed at the first review.

2Prepare the document package

Collect identity, academic, Japanese-study, sponsor, bank and JPETS documents. Use Guide 02 as the working checklist.

3Complete the school forms

Complete the application, resume, purpose statement and financial sponsorship statement consistently. Use Guide 03.

4Support the COE application

The school reviews the package and applies to Japanese immigration. Answer any additional request quickly and truthfully.

5Apply for the visa and enter Japan

After the COE and school payment instructions are completed, apply through VFS in Nepal. Use Guide 04 for the full roadmap.

Source note

School descriptions, fees and schedules in this guide are based on the supplied 18-page English school guide. Immigration and work rules are summarized separately in Guide 05. The school's current written instruction always controls the individual application.
