DOCUMENT PREPARATION

How to Use This Guide

Prepare a clean, consistent evidence package. The school first checks the documents and then acts as the applicant or proxy for the Certificate of Eligibility process in Japan. Immigration may request additional documents depending on the case.

Core rule

Every name, date, address, school period, employment period, relationship and amount must agree across the forms and evidence. Never alter, purchase or fabricate a certificate.

Stage	Recommended working file	What to do
1. Collect	Original paper and official digital records	Obtain certificates from the proper authority and keep originals safe.
2. Translate	Japanese translation attached to each foreign-language item	Show translator name, contact details, date and a statement of accuracy.
3. Scan	Color PDF, one document per file	Scan all pages, seals, reverse sides and attachments at readable resolution.
4. Cross-check	Consistency sheet	Compare spelling, dates, addresses and periods with the school forms.
5. Submit	School-specified upload or email package	Follow the school's naming, size, order and original-submission instructions.

EVIDENCE-BACKED GUIDANCE

Bank Balance and Financial Evidence

What the official checklist supports

The Immigration Services Agency checklist for the relevant category of Japanese-language institution lists the financial sponsorship statement, proof of relationship, the original bank balance certificate and materials explaining fund formation during the past 1 year. The supplied school preparation list uses the same 1-year period.

No universal official minimum was found

The reviewed official COE forms and guidance do not publish one fixed minimum balance that applies to every student. Do not rely on unofficial claims such as an automatic JPY 2,000,000 rule. The package must credibly cover tuition, rent and living costs and must match the sponsor's lawful income and savings history.

Recommended finance package

Evidence	What it should show	Practical check
Original bank balance certificate	Account holder, account number or masked identifier, currency, balance, issue date, bank name, branch and official authentication	Sponsor name must match the forms and relationship evidence.
At least 1 year of transactions	Opening balance, regular income, withdrawals, deposits and closing balance	Balance should reconcile with the certificate.
Occupation evidence	Employer, position, employment period or registered business details	Employer and dates must match the application history.
Income and tax evidence	Annual lawful earnings and tax payment	Income should reasonably explain savings and promised support.
Relationship evidence	Legal relationship between student and sponsor	Names and family links must be traceable across records.
Financial Sponsorship Statement	Tuition, monthly living expenses, payment route and reason for sponsorship	Amounts must align with the school invoice and COE application.

The 1-year versus 3-year difference

Basic package: The supplied one-page preparation list and the current official checklist refer to the past 1 year of fund formation. Additional school review: The 18-page school guide mentions 3 years of bank transactions and 3 years of tax certificates. Therefore, prepare at least 1 year for the base file and keep up to 3 years available when the school requests its stricter internal review. Do not describe the 3-year period as a universal legal requirement.

BANK BALANCE EVIDENCE

Explaining the Source of Funds

Regular savings are easiest to explain

- Salary deposits supported by payslips, employment and tax documents.
- Business income supported by registration, tax filings, invoices and bank turnover.
- Matured deposits supported by deposit-opening and maturity records.
- Sale proceeds supported by ownership evidence, sale agreement, tax and deposit trail.
- Gifts or family transfers supported by donor identity, relationship, lawful source and transfer evidence.

Sudden large deposits require a clear paper trail

Official ISA guidance warns that forged documents or temporary high-value deposits can raise doubts about the intention to study properly. If a large recent deposit is genuine, explain it with dated source documents and show how the money moved into the sponsor's account. A written explanation alone is weaker than independent evidence.

Suggested source-of-funds explanation structure

1

Identify the sponsor and relationship

State the sponsor's full legal name, relationship to the student, occupation and responsibility for tuition and living costs.

2

Summarize annual income and savings

Use the same currency and period as the supporting certificates. Explain normal recurring deposits.

3

Explain each unusual transaction

For each large or irregular deposit, give date, amount, source, reason and attached proof.

4

Show the payment plan

Explain tuition payment, monthly remittance, accommodation and emergency reserves. Do not use expected part-time income as the primary funding source.

Timing and currency

Obtain the bank certificate close to the school submission date and confirm the school's exact permitted issue window. Show the original currency. If an approximate yen conversion is added, state the conversion date and source and do not alter the bank certificate itself.

PRE-ENTRY TB SCREENING

JPETS for Nepal

For Nepal, submission of a TB Clearance Certificate became mandatory on 23 June 2025 when applying for a COE or visa under the JPETS program. The examination must be completed at a designated panel clinic.

Action	Instruction
Book	Use only a clinic listed on the official JPETS Nepal page.
Bring	Follow the clinic's instructions for passport, photographs, fees and prior medical information.
Check	Confirm that all passport details and spellings on the certificate are correct.
Submit	Provide the certificate at the stage directed by the school, normally for the COE package.
Validity	JPETS guidance generally uses 180 days from the chest X-ray date, with some circumstances reducing the period. Confirm the date before submission and travel.

FINAL PREPARATION

Translation, Scanning and Submission QA

Translation

- Attach a Japanese translation to documents written in Nepali or another language when required for the COE file.
- Translate the entire document, including stamps, handwritten notes, headers and reverse-side text.
- Do not change names, dates or amounts to make them look consistent. Resolve discrepancies openly.

Scanning

- Use color scans with readable seals and signatures; avoid shadows, fingers and cropped edges.
- Keep one logical document in one PDF and put pages in the correct order.
- Use simple names such as 01_Passport_FAMILY_Given.pdf and 11_BankBalance_SponsorName.pdf.
- Keep files reasonably sized without making small text unreadable.
